2013 was a challenging year for many Community Action Agencies, Head Start and WIC Programs, along with other non profits—especially those that receive federal funding. Sequestration caused a lot of stress on our operations, our staff and our customers. We made it through, without decreasing child slots and with increased educational requirements for staff. One of our biggest challenges at the same time, was the need for increased security for the children that we serve. Through community support, we were able to install security measures at our locations and an elevator for improved accessibility at our main facility! We are so blessed! In the midst of major obstacles, our communities came through and supported our continued efforts toward excellence. As we enter the 50-Year celebration of Community Action and Pace’s 50th year, WE SALUTE OUR COMMUNITY and all of the work done collaborating to serve the most vulnerable in our neighborhoods. Because of you, Pace Community Action Agency continues to be strong in helping others help themselves. ~Dr. Bertha A. Proctor, CEO

The 2013 “Self-Reliance Award” was presented to Lesley La Fon by Board Member Marc McNece.

Dan Murrie, Daviess County Prosecutor took time to help Head Start children with school readiness skills.
